Sibs and Kids 2022 Recap

We want to thank all of our students and families that were able to attend Sibbs and Kids Day on March 26.

Whether your day was filled with thrilling performances, planetarium shows, ice skating, or a little bit of everything, we hope that you were able to enjoy the Buckeye experience with your student.

For those already looking forward to our next event, we hope to see you this fall for Parent and Family Weekend 2022. More information about dates, events and registration details will be announced this summer. Please check our website using the link below for more details about our upcoming Parent and Family Weekend as they are shared.

Ohio State Day of Giving

Day of Giving is an incredible celebration, bringing together Ohio State alumni, family and friends from around the globe to champion our Buckeyes and their potential to make our world a better place.

This year's Day of Giving is May 3. Together, we will work toward one incredible goal: create pathways for an affordable, accessible education for our students through scholarships.

Click the link below to learn more about the transformational impact scholarships have on the lives of students and their families.

Springing Into Traffic Safety

With warmer weather comes increased multi-modal traffic on our campus roads and sidewalks. We all share the road and the responsibility in assuring it's done safely. Please encourage your student to keep their eyes up and their earbuds out when traveling on campus. Students should also look out for fellow Buckeyes and use the crosswalk. Scooter riders should stay on the road and remember that The Oval is a walk zone.
