Does Your Student Need an Internship or Job?

If your student hasn't lined up an internship or job for next summer, there's still time! On January 18 and 19, The Ohio State University 2022 Spring Career Fair is happening in-person and on-line! The event is open to all current Ohio State students and recent graduates and provides an opportunity for students to network with employers and learn about internship and career opportunities.

Attending employers recruit across a broad range of disciplines including communications, business analysis, logistics, retail management, general management, graphic design, human resources, marketing, sales, financial planning, and other related areas. In addition, there are opportunities for science and technology students, as well as computer science and engineering roles. Federal and State government agencies will also be well represented offering opportunities in administration, fiscal management, technology, diplomacy, and law enforcement and security related functions.

Encourage your student to register for the 2022 Spring Career Fair, and to research which employers will be participating.
